Business Commentary / Highlights

COAL

Coal volumes stood at 1.10 MT during Q1FY15. Company’s mines continue to run satisfactorily. The Company continues its focus on improving efficiency, lowering costs further and increase its revenue from the logistics infrastructure at its mines.

Oil and Gas

The Company recently announced discovery of Oil in one of its wells in Cambay Basin. The discovery opens up a large corridor of possible hydrocarbon accumulation in the area. The discovery in its first well itself is testament to the company’s strong team and capability in the Oil & Gas exploration space

The drilling activities in another wells in Cambay Basin are at an advanced stage.

The Floating Production Unit (FPU) at the EBOK field in Nigeria continues to operate efficiently. More opportunities in the Offshore Services Segment are being explored.

Shipping

All tankers and Gas Carrier were gainfully deployed and continue to run efficiently.

The dry bulk business continues to face challenging market conditions. However it has been consistently outperforming the Baltic Panamax Index. Its Singapore subsidiary is in discussions with its lenders and certain creditors for standstill, refinancing, recapitalization and restructuring.

Dredging

Dredging division continues to perform very well with high level of order book for this and next year. Operating efficiencies have further been improved. The sector looks promising with the new governments focus on enhancing marine infrastructure, Mercator would stand to benefit from this as it is well positioned for the growth as India's second largest dredging player. The Company recently announced its acquisition of two more dredgers. The acquisition substantially enhances the capacity and capability of the Company to serve the coastal dredging activities at major and minor ports of India as well as the Indian Navy. Both of these dredgers would be commissioned around first half of September this year.

Said Mr. H. K. Mittal, Executive Chairman of Mercator "Given our strengths, strong order book and diversified business portfolio the group is well positioned to take advantage of the opportunities the current volatile market may offer"
